REECE HEADS REPUBLICANS

Stassen Injects Sour Note After Election Of Tennesseean

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Harold E. Stassen, souped a discordant note today in Republican praises for the G. O. P. national committee's choice of Rep. Carroll Reece of Tennessee as the party's new chairman.

Stassen, who is almost avowedly in the race for the 1948 presidential nomination, declared it is "well known that I do not approve of Chairman Reece's stand on many issues in the past."

The former Minnesota governor's comment left little doubt about his disappointment over the committee's action in naming Reece, a close political associate of Senator Robert Taft and former Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio, over two other candidates.

Reece succeeds Herbert E. Brownell Jr., who resigned to devote full time to his New York law practice.

Gets Southern Backing

With the almost solid backing of southern state Republicans, plus some such veterans of GOP political battles as Werner Schroeder of Illinois, Reece won on the third ballot in a torrid committee session.

The 56-year-old Tennesseean, a veteran of nearly 25 years of congressional service, told delegates at a victory dinner last night he realizes the national chairman "cannot make the Republican party or determine its destinies."

That was the same point made by Stassen, who said he did not believe Reece's election "constitutes a declaration by the Republican party as to its policy or platform."

Stassen said significantly he was prepared to cooperate with Reece

Council Approves New Wage Ordinance, Annual Appropriation Measure

City council last night passed the 1946 appropriation ordinance, totaling $275,171.70, and a new salary and wage ordinance for non-elective city employees which allows a cost of living adjustment of eight cents an hour for wage earners and $15 a month increase for salaried employees.

Part-time employees realize an eight per cent increase.

The total appropriation is an increase of $24,566.70 above the 1945

figure and the wage and salary increase equals approximately $9,000 more than the 1945 wage ordinance allowed.

City employees had recently petitioned council for 15 cent an hour and $30 increases, but Finance Committee Chairman Harry Vincent said the lower figure had been agreed to after it was made plain to workers that money for such a raise was unavailable this year.

All non-elective employees except the health commissioner, civil service commission, radio man and janitor received increases.

Vincent said council actually was overstepping its bounds on the realized increase, but he said members were proceeding on the hope that additional funds will be available after a slight balance from 1945, now in fund, is consumed by the increases.

Park Fund Boosted

The over-all appropriation had little change outside of the wage and salary increases.

The only noticeable increase was found in the city parks appropriation, which is included in the service department allotment.

The figure there was increased from 1945's $3,600 to $5,000 this year.

96 Divorces Given

Court Approval In County In 10 Days

LISBON, April 2.—While Reno, Nevada, has long been famous and probably out-ranks any of the military separation centers, Columbiana county is also to be reckoned with and really rivals Great Lakes or Indiantown Gap in the number of separations consummated the past two weeks.

The separations here, however, were the divorcing of husbands and wives, while Great Lakes and Indiantown Gap and many similar centers were handing out the no less coveted divorces of G. I.'s from the military services.

A check of the records shows that 89 uncontested divorces were granted in common pleas court, and seven in juvenile court, totaling 96 legal separations granted in the county here since March 15, in 10 days of court hearings.

Divorces led all other actions filed in common pleas court, and constituted approximately 80 per cent of the actions being in March with 72 of the 92 new cases filed in the clerk of court's office being actions in divorce.

In February, the percentage was even higher, with 65 out of 73 new actions being for divorce.

A quarterly report by Clerk John W. Coleman shows 263 new cases filed in the first three months, 218 of which were divorce actions and closely rival the 235 marriage licenses issued in probate court during the same period.

While the divorce mill is being fed at such a high rate, with actions the past two months exceeding marriage licenses, the weddings are showing still further decline, with 48 licenses issued in March as compared to 55 in February and 132 in January.

Ludwig was renamed as a trustee of the public library board for another seven-year term, to run from 1946 to 1953. His previous term expired March 31.

The board approved an extra-curricular athletic program by announcing that Frank Tarr has been named to supervise athletics in the High school gym on Saturday afternoons.

Tarr will watch over the activities of grade and High school basketball aspirants in the gym each Saturday from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. for the remainder of the school year.

Supt. E. S. Kerr revealed that a recent poll among High school students, with reference to the addition of an agricultural course in the High school, indicated enough students are interested in the proposed subject to warrant addition of the course next year.

After Kerr explained the advantages of adding such a course the board voted to inaugurate it in the fall on a trial basis.

The course will include the study of soils, crops, horticulture and animal husbandry and will attempt to acquaint the prospective agriculturist with a solid knowledge of the intricacies of farming as a career.

MINISTERS PLAN FOR GOOD FRIDAY

Plans were completed for the annual Community Good Friday service sponsored by the Salem Ministerial association at a meeting yesterday in the public library assembly room.

The service will be held in the Methodist church from 12 until 3 p. m. Friday, April 19.

"The Last Supper" Words of Jesus From the Cross" will be the general theme and seven ministers will have part.

Outline of the service is as follows:

Rev. Kenneth Birney, pastor of the Leetonia Methodist church, discussed "The Relation of the Pastor to His Congregation." He said a pastor should know his members so well that he could call each one by name.

90 Are Known Dead; Property Loss Is High

(By Associated Press)

HILO, Hawaii, April 2.—The death toll in the eastern Pacific's worst seismic wave disaster reached 90 today and a naval officer estimated the loss of life in Hilo—chief victim of the boiling seas—might total 300.

Damage ran into the millions of dollars.

A submarine earthquake, which geologists called world-shaking, sent giant swells fanning out from the north Pacific at 400 to 500 miles an hour early yesterday. Beaches on Hawaii, the Aleutians and California were lashed by 10 to 100-foot waves.

The death toll:

Hawaiian Islands—60 bodies recovered at Hilo; nine on Oahu, seven on Maui and six on Kauai islands.

Unimak, the Aleutians—Ten men swept to sea from the Scotch cap lighthouse.

California—One man swept to sea from the Santa Cruz beach.

Many were missing in Hilo and in rural Laupahoehoe, but the number was not known.

At Honolulu, William W. Monahan, chairman of the Hawaii Red Cross, estimated that not more than 44,000 refugees asked for shelter in all of the Hawaiian islands. Of these, 1,800 were on Oahu and 800 on Hawaii islands.

Territorial Gov. Ingram Stainback invoked the Hawaiian defense act "for the safeguarding of life and property and the preservation of law and order" in wave-ravaged areas.

Casualty reports appeared to be complete from all damaged areas

Damage Runs Into Millions Of Dollars

Hawaiians "dared not estimate the damage, except in the millions of dollars," Herbert C. Shipman, Hilo sugar planter, said $700,000 worth of raw sugar was swept into the ocean with destruction of territorial wharves.

Tens of thousands of dollars worth of food in warehouses was destroyed.

It was estimated that Hilo had only four days of food available. To conserve the supply, residents were limited to the purchase of $2 worth of food at one time.

Navy dispatches from Midway and tiny Johnston islands reported major damage to communications facilities but no loss of navy personnel. New equipment and radio technicians were dispatched to the islands immediately.

There were no reports of ships at sea in distress. One geologist said the vast length of such waves, of the greatest disaster-relief jobs in Hawaiian history.

Honolulu's leeward location sheltered the luxury hotels of Waikiki beach and left naval shipping in landlocked Pearl Harbor undamaged.

Hilo, exposed to the full force of the waves, was a scene of horror. Weeping friends and relatives waited on high ground as troops in the wrecked waterfront recovered bodies.

Buildings were crushed and ripped apart; huge gaps were pushed through thick concrete walls, and there was a sprawling litter of what had been railroad cars, automobiles, trucks, buildings and boats.

A chance telephone call at 6 a. m. aroused Dan Nathaniel, Jr., who then got one of the clearest views of the Hilo disaster. He noticed that the sea had receded unbelievably, leaving the ocean bed in front of his cottage almost dry.

"Then it came, in nine waves. I ran out, and it caught me. Waves were over the railroad bridge, 50 feet above the normal streambed."

Tossed on the raging crests, he grasped a store marquee and managed to cling there until the waters receded.

EXPECTANT MOTHER KILLED IN CRASH

YOUNGSTOWN, April 2.—Mrs. William G. Reynalt, 32-year-old expectant mother, died today in a Youngstown hospital from shock and injuries suffered in an automobile collision. Her child, a boy, was born dead following the mother's death.

Police arrested a 22-year-old driver of a pick-up truck, who, a passenger in the car with Mrs. Reynalt said, swerved around a barricade on a street repair job and crashed into the Reynalt car.

3 Separate Waves Flatten Hilo Waterfront Buildings

By DOUGLAS LOVEFACE

HILO, Hawaii, April 2.—Hilo's seismic wave death toll might have been in the thousands had it struck two or three hours later than it did.

The swells engulfed Hilo's waterfront business district while the city slowly was waking to life yesterday.

A little later, employees and shoppers would have thronged warehouses and stores in the ravished area.

The warning given by the two smaller of Hilo's three waves saved hundreds, who had time to flee from the waterfront.

This is how the waves struck: The first inundated 50 feet along the waterfront—much of it park and warehouse areas. Cries of warning sounded and people boiled into the streets in a mad rush for higher ground.

A few merchants remained to tidy their stores, which were barely touched by the water.

Second, Third Waves Worst

Ten minutes later, a second, larger wave struck, driving 100 yards deeper into the city, smashing frail buildings and strewn mud, coral and debris through stores.

Volunteers poured into the area, routing lagards.

A few minutes later the third wave struck—a towering, angry 20-foot wall of water rushing in from the north at incredible speed.

It smashed buildings to smithereens as it coiled and whiplashed two blocks deep into the city in a wave of destruction.

William Hana, who rescued his mother and two other women from the Hana hotel, described the fury:

"We heard the water crash into buildings. Screams of people, the crunching of wood and the shattering of glass filled the air."

"Our hotel was shaking so fiercely we couldn't move. There were about 25 women and children inside. Then the waters receded and men started helping the women and children out. Everyone in the hotel was saved, but we found two children underneath—dead."

Today, tearful, grim-faced families wandered about this once beautiful city of 25,000, searching for their missing.

Smashed, Twisted Wreckage

Kamehameha, a street of warehouses, cheap frame hotels and little shops, was reduced to a tangled, muddled, jumbled mass of wreckage. Entire buildings were missing: The fate of their occupants unknown.

Streets were blocked by rubble that once was buildings. Powerlines were down. Railroad (narrow gauge) tracks were twisted like confetti. A huge steel bridge was washed out. Scores of small craft were shattered.

Out in the harbor, the ocean was pouring through the breakwater that cost several million dollars to build.

From the air, the waterfront looked as if the ocean had picked up buildings, swept them out to sea, then dashed them back on land again like thousands of matches.

The waves played gruesome tricks. A house was perched on a bridge. An oil barge was balanced on the edge of a dock. The Hilo Yacht club, with a huge dance floor was moved several hundred feet.

A bar was cleared of furniture, in its place the waves left scores of cactus plants that formerly grew outside.

No one was injured at 1:15 a. m. today when a car, driven by Harry Risher, 35, R. D. 2, Leetonia, sideswiped the rear of a truck-trailer, operated by George A. Olson, 27, of Pittsburgh, on Route 14, about a mile east of the Route 7 junction.

State patrolmen said the left front of Risher's car and the rear of the truck-trailer were damaged.

except the island, of Hawaii, on which Hilo with its 255,000 population is located.

There was some hope that Hilo's death toll might not reach the naval officer's 300 estimate. A score of persons previously reported missing had been saved from the waters off Hawaii by army and navy air-sea rescue planes and small surface craft. One, a 21-year-old school teacher, Miss Marjorie McGinnis, of Oxford, Ohio, was rescued after eight hours in the water.

There was hope also that the waves might not recur today, as feared for a time last night.

There were no reports of ships at sea in distress. One geologist said the vast length of such waves, from crest to crest, would enable vessels to ride them out without difficulty.

The waves piled up into terrifying walls of water as they reached coastlines, however, and Ketchikan, Alaska, reported a 100-foot wave had swept Scotch Gap lighthouse from the Aleutian island of Unimak with an estimated loss of 10 lives.

A minor wave wrought slight damage at Dutch harbor, 120 miles to the west, shortly afterward.

Cost Guard stations reported no extensive damage and no loss of life in the Pacific northwest states, but one man was swept to sea and lost from the beach at Santa Cruz, Calif.

The navy had no immediate reports of damage in the Marshall Islands.

Tokyo reported no disturbance of any sort.

Sheltered Honolulu Mobilizes Relief
At East Island, on French frigate shoal, 45 miles northwest of Honolulu, the giant seas swept clear over the island, the Coast Guard said. There was no word of the island's little naval garrison.

In sheltered Honolulu, on the leeward side of Oahu island, army, navy, territorial and federal relief agencies mobilized hastily for one of the greatest disaster-relief jobs in Hawaiian history.

William Hana, who rescued his mother and two other women from the Hana hotel, described the fury:

"We heard the water crash into buildings. Screams of people, the crunching of wood and the shattering of glass filled the air."

"Our hotel was shaking so fiercely we couldn't move. There were about 25 women and children inside. Then the waters receded and men started helping the women and children out. Everyone in the hotel was saved, but we found two children underneath—dead."

Today, tearful, grim-faced families wandered about this once beautiful city of 25,000, searching for their missing.

Smashed, Twisted Wreckage
Kamehameha, a street of warehouses, cheap frame hotels and little shops, was reduced to a tangled, muddled, jumbled mass of wreckage. Entire buildings were missing. The fate of their occupants unknown.

Streets were blocked by rubble that once was buildings. Powerlines were down. Railroad (narrow gauge) trucks were twisted like coffee. A huge steel bridge was washed out. Scores of small craft were shattered.

Out in the harbor, the ocean was pouring through the breakwater that cost several million dollars to build.

From the air, the waterfront looked as if the ocean had picked up buildings, swept them out to sea, then dashed them back on land again like thousands of matches.

The waves played gruesome tricks. A house was perched on a bridge. An oil barge was balanced on the edge of a dock. The Hilo Yacht club, with a huge dance floor was moved several hundred feet.

A bar was cleared of furniture. In its place the waves left scores of cactus plants that formerly grew outside.

Swept Into Ocean,
Ohio Girl Rescued
Eight Hours Later

(By Associated Press)
HILO, Hawaii, April 2.—Miss Marjorie McGinnis, 21, Oxford, Ohio, was rescued from the sea eight hours after she was swept from a beach by yesterday's seismic wave.

Two school children also were picked up as they clung to wreckage.

One of the rescuers was Pfc. Moku Malani, Sr., who rushed to Hawaii recently from Ft. Benning, Ga., to see his dying son.

Miss McGinnis, a school teacher formerly of Fulton, Mo., was sighted clinging to a door by an air rescue crew, which dropped a life raft.

The search continued throughout the night. Planes dropped flares to guide sea craft.

Two Other Ohio Girls Lost
Miss McGinnis was one of three school teachers from Ohio reported missing in the oceanic disaster. The other two—Dorothy Drake of Columbus and Helen Kingseed of Sidney—still were unheard from.

The three 22-year-old girls, close friends, lived in cottages along Hawaii's shore.

It was believed their homes had been washed into the churning ocean or pushed inland into a crush of buildings, concrete walls, automobiles, trucks, buildings and boats.

The three women attended Miami (O.) university at the same time, and friends back at Oxford said they often dreamed and planned of coming to the islands to pursue their teaching careers together.

Miss McGinnis is the daughter of Ralph J. McGinnis of Cincinnati, editor of the "Farm Quarterly" magazine; Miss Drake's father is Ieland N. Drake, a school principal, and Miss Kingseed is a daughter of William Kingseed, prominent Shelby county farm owner and banker.

What Next, Little Men?

One of the curious by-products of the United Automobile Workers' convention is the public realization that the General Motors strike was used to help the candidacy of one of the union's officials for the presidency, against the counsel of other officials and contrary to the advice of the head of the C.I.O. Another is the revelation that the union's demand for a look at the corporation's books never was intended to be anything more than a talking point—a way to put General Motors "over a barrel". One of the things the union claimed was that the books would prove what the Department of Commerce had asserted, that wage rates could be increased as much as 24 per cent without any increase in prices. This assertion recently was called back by Secretary of Commerce Wallace, who explained that it shouldn't have been taken seriously, because an obscure economist had made it, so sorry and excuse it please.

What do you suppose the little men will think up next to stir up the animals and keep everybody too excited to wonder why it seems necessary to stir up the animals in the first place?

Precedents For International Law

Russia has been rebuffed on two claims that would have set two bad precedents in the international law being forged on the anvil of United Nations debate. It sought first to have assertions about negotiations and agreements with Iran which were not confirmed by the Iranian government accepted without question by the Security Council. This proposition was not agreeable.

It sought also to postpone consideration of the Iran case to a later date, claiming that it was not ready to consider the case. This proposition was rejected.

All members of the Security Council, all members of the United Nations and the populations they represent are deeply conscious of the fact that every move made in the infancy of the organization is destined to become a precedent in international law. Two precedents which would have been injurious to confidence in the United Nations have been avoided. Two good precedents have been established: that no government whose word is contested by another shall have the right to over-rule dissent, and that no government seeking a delay without good cause shall be favored at the expense of another government.

The Heavy Curse Of Absolutism

Reading the transcript of discussion in the United Nations Security Council meetings, one can see more clearly than before that the basic issue of international relations is between the absolute and the relative.

These are not, unfortunately, satisfactory words to describe the conflict, but they are the best available. They denote on the one hand an attitude which in politics gives rise to the doctrine of absolutism—unconditional power vested in an autocrat—and on the other hand gives rise to the doctrine which Americans sometimes express as "Live and let live."

Thus, the source of much conflict with Russian opinion and action is the creed that the Soviet Union and its ideology of Communism must be supreme, to the exclusion of all other rights both claimed and established. This creed is in contrast with an American belief that nations and ideologies can exist side by side in a world which makes allowance for differences of opinion.

The theory of the United Nations, as Americans understand it, is that differences of opinion can be reconciled and compromised. It has taken only a little experimentation, however, to reveal that the Russian government is not prepared to proceed on the same theory; that officially it is intolerant of any position that challenges Russian policy.

Absolutism is not confined, however, to international relations, and certainly is not the exclusive characteristic of Russian officialdom. It was the principal feature of Germany's attitude under Hitler, who preached that German rights were supreme and led his nation in a ruthless crusade to liquidate all opposition inside and outside its borders. It was the basic idea behind Japanese aggression. And it has been adopted by segments of our own population.

We need most of all to realize its implications in our own affairs. Absolutism is as foreign to the spirit of the American experiment with freedom as the doctrine of unlimited monarchy. We need desperately to see the danger that it might be allowed to corrupt the American ideal of tolerance.

We need to understand the significance of work stoppages ordered by labor "czars" for purposes that are unrelated to the general welfare and maintained in a manner that denies the American doctrine of majority rule.

We need to be aware of the implications of "purges" in our political parties that could lead to party dictatorship and might even lead to the development of a one-party autocracy.

We need to be alert to the irreconcilable attitudes of minorities which arrogantly refuse to enter into any kind of a working relationship with other minorities for a common cause and we particularly need to be informed of the activities of minorities that preach and practice sedition under the protection of free speech.

Absolutism reached the bursting point and spattered the universe with its infection in the war years. It must be controlled, if it can be controlled, by development of immunity in the minds of all who understand the danger and are on guard against it. That is the great purpose of the United Nations in relations between governments. It is the purpose of the real liberals in the United States—in contrast to the bogus liberals who preach and practice various versions of despotism in the guise of liberalism. Absolutism and despotism are the same thing. Both deny the right of opposition. Neither recognizes the possibility that a question may have two answers, or that each side in a dispute may be partly right and partly wrong.

The fight for human dignity has been a war against despots. It never ends. World War II shattered one of the most formidable plots of despotism ever conceived, but would-be despots are still busy in countless places, hoping for a fatal relaxation of the eternal vigilance which is the price men must pay for liberty.

Erika's Contribution

The death of Field Marshal Werner von Blomberg in Germany provides an occasion to recall the little-known and soon-forgotten name of Erika Gruhn, and to contemplate her possible influence on world history. She was Blomberg's secretary, and he married her in 1938. Blomberg at the time was generalissimo of Germany's land, sea, and air forces. But he so incensed his stiff-necked Prussian colleagues by marrying "beneath him" that he was forced to resign. Hitler took over Blomberg's job—Hitler and his intuition.

How much longer and how different might the war have been, if Erika hadn't married the boss?

The Stars Say

For Wednesday, April 3.

WHILE the energies are concentrated on putting over ambitious programs of long-range influence on business, and taking advantage of current opening doors, yet the calls of home, romance, social and cultural advantages are likely to claim attention.

In such connection, it may be necessary to come to pleasant agreements or to make decisions vital to the home and its happiness and well-being. Beauty, charm, enhance the prospect.

Those whose birthday it is have a year of gratifying success probably in new fields of operation or with fresh ways and means of accomplishing far-reaching objectives. This effort reaches beyond the ends of the commonplace and may develop dramatic, romantic and social aspirations, destined to bring happiness and enduring satisfaction. Serious consideration should be brought to bear upon all such personal decisions or intimate agreements for highest results.

A child born on this day will have many talents, charms and lure, to sustain its skill in securing happiness and good fortune in its life.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Hazards During Pregnancy

BY HERMAN N. BUNDSEN, M.D.

THE price of safety where motherhood is concerned is eternal vigilance on the part of doctors and utmost co-operation on the part of patients.

One of the most deadly hazards of childbirth is puerperal infection of the womb. In the past, this so-called childbed fever annually claimed the lives of thousands of mothers.

Today, modern sterile techniques in the delivery room have made it something of a rarity.

Use of Drugs

Furthermore, in those cases where its development cannot be prevented, penicillin and the sulfonamide drugs give physicians sovereign weapons with which to combat it.

Nonetheless, in spite of the great effectiveness of these new drugs, some mothers so afflicted will surely die. Therefore, the need for preventive measures during pregnancy and delivery cannot be over-emphasized.

Sterile Technique

Absolutely sterile technique must be observed in the delivery room. This is of paramount importance. Dr. Charles Edwin Galloway of Chicago further suggests that during pregnancy, a careful search be made for any infections of the teeth, tonsils or sinuses. These, he says, must be cleared up.

If the patient is suffering from anemia or a lessening of the coloring in the blood, this, also, should be corrected by giving iron-containing preparations and foods rich in iron, especially meat, eggs, and green vegetables.

During the last three months of pregnancy, tub baths should not be permitted and shower baths should replace them.

Respiratory Infection

It is also important that any person with a respiratory infection, such as a cold, be kept out of the part of the hospital where delivery is carried out.

According to Dr. Galloway, the three main causes of infection during the birth of the baby are prolonged labor, tearing of the womb, and excessive bleeding.

During the first two stages of labor, the use of drugs which stimulate contractions of the womb should be prohibited, according to Dr. Galloway. If excessive bleeding should occur, injections of blood plasma or whole blood into a vein should be carried out promptly.

Type of Germ

If puerperal infection should develop, the physician will attempt to determine just what type of germ is causing the difficulty so that he can decide upon the proper treatment.

The symptoms of puerperal sepsis include pain in the lower part of the abdomen, restlessness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and, of course, fever. Most of the patients may be free of all symptoms at the beginning of the condition except for fever, increase in the number of white cells in the blood, and a rapid pulse rate.

Penicillin is effective against most of the germs which cause puerperal infection. It is suggested by Dr. Galloway that it be given by injection into a vein or a muscle. Streptococcus antitoxin may be used also in cases caused by the hemolytic streptococcus.

These methods of prevention and treatment of puerperal sepsis have resulted in the saving of many lives. It is to the great credit of the medical profession that so much has been done in this way and in others to make motherhood a safe and joyous experience.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

H. R. J.: What is meant by insufflating the tubes?

Answer: Insufflating means distending or blowing them up with air. This is done to determine if the tubes are open and, if possible, to open up a passageway through them.

C. G.: How does a person feel when blood pressure is 200?

Answer: A blood pressure of 200 may be present without any noticeable symptoms. However, there often may be headaches, dizziness, and pounding of the heart. High blood pressure should be treated by a physician.

K. M.: Lights and even sunlight makes me very nervous. Could thyroid trouble be the cause?

Answer: It is not likely that thyroid trouble could be the cause for your nervousness on exposure to light. This probably comes from some other condition.

Letters to Dr. Bundsen should be addressed in care of 235 E. 45th st., New York City.

Groom Robot Plane For Diving Tests

(By Associated Press)
DAYTON, April 2—A pilotless remote-controlled Lockheed P-80 will be given a series of power dive tests at Muroc army air field, Calif., this summer to prove the maximum speed at which the jet-propelled plane can be flown safely, headquarters of the Army's Air Materiel command at nearby Wright field announced today.

By using a pilotless P-80 remotely controlled from the cockpit of a "mother" P-80, and thus eliminating danger to the pilot, the plane can be put through dives never before attempted, said Maj. Gen. B. W. Chislaw, AMC deputy commanding general.

Besides proving the P-80's maximum speed, he added, "the resultant information will be of use in the design of future high speed planes."

AMC reported the tests were planned for May or June.

A ground control unit, located in a truck, also will be used in the tests. This unit will control landing and take-offs and by means of a television set, which will show the pilotless plane's instrument panel, the ground engineer can inform the pilot of the "mother" ship on the exact technical operation of the robot.

Groom Robot Plane For Diving Tests

(By Associated Press)
DAYTON, April 2 — A pilotless remotely-controlled Lockheed P-80 will be given a series of power dive tests at Muroc army air field, Calif., this summer to prove the maximum speed at which the jet-propelled plane can be flown safely, head-on, and to determine the maximum command at nearby Wright field announced today.

"By using a pilotless P-80 remotely controlled from the cockpit of a 'mother' P-80, and thus eliminating danger to the pilot, the plane can be put through dives never before attempted," said Maj. Gen. B. W. Chittlaw, AMC deputy commanding general.

Besides proving the P-80's maximum speed, he added, "the resultant information will be of use in the design of future high speed planes."

AMC reported the tests were planned for May or June.

A ground control unit, located in a truck, also will be used in the tests. This unit will control landings and take-offs and by means of a television set, which will show the pilotless plane's instrument panel, the ground engineer can inform the pilot of the "mother" ship on the exact technical operation of the robot.

Super Quiet Room Aid To Deaf

BY EDWARD S. KITCH
CHICAGO, April 2.—Research engineers at the Illinois Institute of Technology have built a soundproof room to help them to aid man's hearing sense.

Peter J. Mills, associate professor of physics at the institute, designed and supervised the construction of a super soundproof room that he says, will be so quiet a person standing inside can hear his own heart beat.

The insulated room will be used as a laboratory to find ways to prevent and alleviate human deafness.

The interior of the "anechoic" room was lined with a series of 2,500 fiber glass wedges designed to absorb all noise. The points of these 24-inch wedge-shaped spikes protrude into the room. A floor of iron grating will permit persons to walk inside of it.

The 40-ton chamber itself rests on rubber pads, placed on concrete piers. This box-shaped room, 18 feet wide, 20 feet long and 12 feet high, was placed inside another insulated chamber and will be ventilated continuously by forced air.

Professor Mills says the purpose of the sound-proof chamber is to eliminate, as much as possible, all extraneous sounds, so that those originating within the room can be measured accurately by electronic instruments.

Cavalry, Armored Units Are Merged

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Military men heard with sentimental regret today that the War department has decided to abolish the cavalry as a separate branch of the army.

There was no official confirmation, but service publications report that a general army reorganization proposal awaiting President Truman's approval calls for merging the horse outfits with the armored force.

Trends in World War II were all in that direction. The First cavalry division fought on foot in the Pacific, and Negro troopers of the Second Cavalry division were employed in service units after the North Africa landing.

The horse cavalry did see some action, though, in the China-India-Burma theater.

Abolition of the cavalry as a separate branch would be the final chapter in a spectacular military history studied by such names as Robert E. Lee, George A. Custer and George S. Patton.

Salem Girl Aids Growth Of Flying Club At Denison

Patricia Keener, 19-year-old Auburn-haired Freshman at Denison university, Granville, flies her own plane, a Luscombe that was a Christmas gift from her father, Samuel F. Keener of Salem.

Her enthusiasm for flying has stimulated the students to form a Wings club, that has been instrumental in getting flight training added to the Denison curriculum.

Already four of the nine students in the first class learning to fly have soloed, thus making them eligible for active membership in the club.

Super Quiet Room Aid To Deaf

BY EDWARD S. KITCH
CHICAGO, April 2.—Research engineers at the Illinois Institute of Technology have built a soundless room to help them to aid man's hearing sense.

Peter J. Mills, associate professor of physics at the institute, designed and supervised the construction of a super sound-proof room that, he says, will be so quiet a person standing inside can hear his own heart beat.

The insulated room will be used as a laboratory to find ways to prevent and alleviate human deafness.

The interior of the "anechoic" room was lined with a series of 2,500 fiber glass wedges designed to absorb all noise. The points of these 24-inch wedge-shaped spikes protrude into the room. A floor of iron grating will permit persons to walk inside of it.

The 40-ton chamber itself rests on rubber pads, placed on concrete piers. This box-shaped room, 18 feet wide, 20 feet long and 12 feet high, was placed inside another insulated chamber and will be ventilated continuously by forced air.

Professor Mills says the purpose of the sound-proof chamber is to eliminate, as much as possible, all extraneous sounds, so that those originating within the room can be measured accurately by electronic instruments.

Cavalry, Armored Units Are Merged

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Military men heard with sentimental regret today that the War department has decided to abolish the cavalry as a separate branch of the army.

There was no official confirmation, but service publications report that a general army reorganization proposal awaiting President Truman's approval calls for merging the horse outfits with the armored force.

Trends in World War II were all in that direction. The First cavalry division fought on foot in the Pacific, and Negro troopers of the Second Cavalry division were employed in service units after the North Africa landing.

The horse cavalry did see some action, though, in the China-India-Burma theater.

Abolition of the cavalry as a separate branch would be the final

MARCH SETS HEAT RECORD

Average Temperature Ten
Degrees Above Normal;
Record Sunshine

March was an unusually warm and fair month, according to L. H. Copeland of Millport, U. S. Weather observer for this district.

The month set a new all-time high over the past 53 years in average temperature, bettering the 47.5 degree average for March, 1945, with a 47.8 average. Normal March temperature is 37.4.

Another all-time record was established last month with 65 per cent sunshine as compared to the previous record of 55 per cent in March, last year. There were 13 clear days, 12 partly cloudy and only six cloudy, Copeland reported.

Less Rainfall
Rainfall last month totaled 1.84 inches, considerably under the 3.2 inch normal. No snowfall was recorded.

Eight days during March had temperatures in the 70s, and 15 in the 60s. High for the month was 77 on March 28, while the low was 18 above on the 10th.

Average day temperature for the month was 62 and night 33.6.

March a year ago was previously the warmest month on record over the past 53 years, with an average of 47.5 and 55 per cent sunshine. Rainfall in March 1945 totaled 7.88 inches, the highest on record.

The current year is now 729 degrees ahead of average in temperature and short 2.9 inches in rainfall, Copeland says.

Abnormal warm weather has brought out the fruit buds, now in grave danger from killing frosts, which have occurred in this area as late as May 10.

The month was favorable to outdoor work by the farmers, Copeland says, and a lot of plowing has been done, with some oats sown. Upland pastures are green and wheat fields have improved, thus promising a fair crop.

The month was a feed and fuel saver. Copeland predicts more than average rainfall and low temperatures in April.

Army Schedules Tests Of Nazi V-2 Missiles

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The army signalled its intention today to push the development of rockets as an atomic age weapon by scheduling a series of tests with re-assembled German V-2 missiles.

Twenty-five V-2s will be fired at intervals of about a week beginning May 8 in the New Mexico desert. With military and civilian scientists following their course, they are expected to roar to an unprecedented altitude of 100 miles at a top velocity of 3,500 miles an hour. Radar will track the V-2s, and preparations have been made to collect scientific data of several kinds during the flights.

Army Battles To Defeat Osaka Typhus Epidemic

OSAKA, Japan, April 2.—The largest typhus epidemic which has confronted the United States army during World War II has broken out among Japanese civilians in the Osaka area.

An intensified, full scale campaign to break the hold of the disease has been inaugurated by the 25th (Tropic Lightning) division, which has responsibility for the 12th prefecture and the city of Osaka.

Maj. Gen. Charles L. Mullins, Jr., commander of the 25th, said 5,971 cases were reported in Osaka alone and 7,113 in the 12th prefecture. The death rate has been 8 per cent of the reported cases.

New Drives Aimed At Nazi Elements Alive In Germany

(By Associated Press)

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 2.—American intelligence officers said today that several Nazi subversive movements still were plotting against the Allies in Germany and that Sunday's roundup of nearly 1,000 Hitler youth conspirators was "only the beginning."

The officers said counter-espionage agents were working "day and night" to break up the last vestiges of Nazi resistance which came into the open with the weekend sweep on followers of captured Arthur Axmann, former head of the Hitler youth movement.

The operation against the Axmann group is still going on, it was said, although only remnants of the group remain.

About 20 per cent of the target suspects in the weekend roundup had left or fled their addresses when the agents struck, however.

No casualties were reported among the 7,000 Allied combat troops and counterespionage agents who participated in the raids.

New Syphilis Treatment Center Opens At Columbus

COLUMBUS, April 2.—A state center for rapid treatment of syphilis opened officially today in surplus buildings of the army air base at nearby Lockbourne.

Dr. John D. Porterfield, chief of the state division of venereal diseases, said about 20 patients were receiving treatment already under the direction of Dr. Allen E. Walker, who formerly was in charge of a rapid treatment center at Denver, Colo. He is a U. S. Public Health Service officer.

Although the center is being operated by the U. S. Public Health Service now, it will be taken over by the state whenever funds become available, Dr. Porterfield said.

The center is open to indigent persons anywhere in the state, provided their home counties pay their transportation here and back. The rapid treatment given most cases usually takes nine days.

New Syphilis Treatment Center Opens At Columbus

COLUMBUS, April 2.—A state center for rapid treatment of syphilis opened officially today in surplus buildings of the army air base at nearby Lockbourne.

Dr. John D. Porterfield, chief of the state division of venereal diseases, said about 20 patients were receiving treatment already under the direction of Dr. Allen E. Walker, who formerly was in charge of a rapid treatment center at Denver, Colo. He is a U. S. Public Health Service officer.

Although the center is being operated by the U. S. Public Health Service now, it will be taken over by the state whenever funds become available, Dr. Porterfield said.

The center is open to indigent persons anywhere in the state, provided their home counties pay their transportation here and back. The rapid treatment given most cases usually takes nine days.

Ohio Paper Suspends

COSHOCOTON, April 2.—The Coshocton Daily News suspended publication yesterday after ten weeks of operation. The suspension was attributed to a shortage of plant equipment.

Now extinct, the last Labrador duck recorded was shot on Long Island in 1875.

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and adults are victims of Pin-Worms. Watch for the warning signs, especially the embarrassing, itching, rectal itch. After centuries of Pin-Worm distress a really effective way to deal with them has been established through JAYNE'S P.W., the new Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. The small, easy-to-take P.W. tablets give satisfaction or your money back. So why take chances on Pin-Worms! If you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for P.W. and follow the directions. It's easy to remember: P.W. for Pin-Worms!

BRADLEY POSITIVE INDIANS WILL BE "FIGHTING" CLUB

Predicts Team Will Be One Fans Can Be Proud Of In 46 Season

(By Associated Press) CLEVELAND, April 2.—The Cleveland Indians will have a "scrappy ball club that will give every team in the league a fight" in a wide open scramble for the 1946 American league pennant, says Alva Bradley, president of the Tribesmen.

Bradley, who returned from the Indians' Clearwater, Fla. training camp yesterday with a deep tan and an optimistic gleam in his eye, praised a quartet of Tribe rookies, and declared:

"The New York Yankees aren't going to run away with the pennant. The Red Sox are formidable and the Tigers have power—but I believe Cleveland fans will be proud of their team."

No Predictions The Indians' president declined to say how proud Cleveland fans would be this summer, since he traditionally refuses to predict the Tribe's rank in the final standings.

Bradley asserted Manager Lou Boudreau would unveil a "hustling, harmonious" team, including "one of the best crops of rookies the Indians have had in years," in the club's home-opener against the World Champion Detroit Tigers, April 20.

Slugging Catcher Sherman Lollar, Infielder Bob Lemon, and Outfielders Gene Woodling and Hank Edwards received special praise from Bradley.

Woodling, stocky centerfielder from Akron, O., who has won batting championships in three minor leagues, and Edwards, another Ohioan from Norwalk, were named in Manager Boudreau's tentative starting lineup.

Lollar, capped most of the International league batting laurels with Baltimore last year while Lemon sparkled in a Pacific Navy league.

Springfield Twp. Here In Practice Meet Salem High's track team, preparing for its official opener with Youngstown Rayen here on April 12, will meet Springfield Township in a practice meet at Reilly stadium this afternoon.

Faculty Manager Fred Cope, who is also coach of the track team, said the meet today was being held to give him an idea of his new candidates in the various track and field events.

Mexican Loop Holds One More Bombshell For U. S. Magnates, Pasquel Says

(By Associated Press) MEXICO CITY, April 2.—Mexico League President Jorge Pasquel believes he has another little bombshell in the making for the major leagues.

Quite pleased over his acquisition of Mickey Owen, Vern Stephens and three New York Giants' players in the past few days, the dapper baseball magnate declared yesterday that "two or three other" big leaguers soon will be playing in his circuit.

He declined to name them but said they should be here by next week.

With his eight clubs already stocked with 17 former major leaguers, Pasquel indicated that he soon will bring an end to his raiding for the current season. Pasquel, who with his four brothers, dominates the loop which has no ties with organized baseball, said, however, that he already is angling for the 1947 season.

The Mexico league presently limits each of its eight teams to eight foreign players but with the recent additions and the few more expected shortly it was believed that the ceiling would be raised.

Salaries A Question Pasquel didn't disclose the salaries he was going to pay Owen or the Giants' trio—First Baseman Roy Zimmerman, Second Baseman George Hausmann and Pitcher Sal Maglie—but the ball players have revealed some of the terms.

Branch Rickey, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said at Daytona Beach, Fla., that Owen wrote him he was going to get a cash bonus of $12,500 for signing his five-year contract.

The former Giants said they are to get $5,000 bonuses plus $13,000 a year.

Pasquel said that the 30-year-old Owen who received his Naval discharge at the Sampson, N. Y., sep-

Barons Underdog In Hockey Finals

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, April 2.—Buffalo's Barons will be top-heavy favorites for the 1946 American Hockey league title when they collide with the defending champion Cleveland Barons here tonight in the opener of the final playoff series.

The Barons' championship stock took another tumble today when Coach Bun Cook revealed that injuries probably would sideline Les Cunningham, star center, for at least two games and Forward Bus Brayshaw for the entire seven-game series. Cunningham holds the all-time league record for goals and total points.

The Bisons, who arrived in town and worked out yesterday, hold a 6 to 2 season advantage over the Clevelanders.

Buffalo's youth, speed and power carried the contenders to new American league marks in victories and total points this year.

Realtor Almost Sells Himself As Coach

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — Gwin Henry, former University of New Mexico football coach, was in the headlines recently—all by error, he claims.

Henry wired officials at New Mexico A. & M. college in behalf of Maurice Moulder, former University of Missouri grid star, seeking an interview for Moulder as a candidate for the vacant Aggie coaching job.

His wire, Henry said, misfired and the first thing he knew, he was being considered for the job himself. Now in the real estate business, he remarked "I might be interested" in returning to the coaching profession.

Boosters To Arrange Basketball Banquet

Salem Boosters will meet at the Memorial building at 7:30 tonight to make plans for the annual Salem High basketball banquet, Joe Kelley and Art Brian announced today.

The meeting tonight will determine the date and program for the annual cage banquet, usually held at the Memorial building.

Last year the club feted the team in one of the largest banquets ever held for a cage team. Harold W. Emswiler, OHSAA commissioner, and Coach "Mo" Hoie of Wooster college were the speakers.

Barons Underdog In Hockey Finals

(By Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, April 2.—Buffalo's Bisons will be top-heavy favorites for the 1946 American Hockey league title when they collide with the defending champion Cleveland Barons here tonight in the opener of the final playoff series.

The Barons' championship stock took another tumble today when Coach Bun Cook revealed that injuries probably would sideline Les Cunningham, star center, for at least two games and Forward Bus Brashaw for the entire seven-game series. Cunningham holds the all-time league record for goals and total points.

The Bisons, who arrived in town and worked out yesterday, hold a 6 to 2 season advantage over the Clevelanders.

Buffalo's youth, speed and power carried the contenders to new American league marks in victories and total points this year.

Realtor Almost Sells Himself As Coach

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. — Gwin Henry, former University of New Mexico football coach, was in the headlines recently—all by error, he claims.

Henry wired officials at New Mexico A. & M. college in behalf of Maurice Moulder, former University of Missouri grid star, seeking an interview for Moulder as a candidate for the vacant Aggie coaching job.

His wire, Henry said, misfired and the first thing he knew, he was being considered for the job himself. Now in the real estate business, he remarked "I might be interested" in returning to the coaching profession.

Manush Now Scouting

ROANOKE, Va.—Heinie Manush, former Roanoke and Martinsville, Va., baseball manager, has given up bossing minor league clubs and now is a scout for the Boston Braves of the National League. Manush formerly starred for the St. Louis Browns, Washington, Pittsburgh and Brooklyn.

Shaky Returns

NORFOLK, Va.—Thomas Gerald (Shaky) Kain has been named manager of the Piedmont League Norfolk Tars. Kain managed Norfolk, a farm team of the New York Yankees, to third place in the Piedmont race in 1943.

Jarets At Camp Lee

CAMP LEE, Va.—Otto Jarets, a member of the quartet that shattered the 400-meter relay swimming record in the 1938 Olympics at Berlin, is stationed at Camp Lee. He's attached to the physical education staff.

Safe At Home

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—Catcher Bob Crenshaw of the Chattanooga Lookouts finds satisfaction in the fact that his two children are girls.

"They won't be ball players," he says, "but it's certain they won't grow up to be umpires!"

Top Scorer Again

EAST LANSING, Mich. — Sam Fortino, scoring 251 points in 21 games, paced Michigan State's basketball team for the second straight season.

Arcardo Tops Field

CORAL GABLES, Fla. — Winning 38 of 171 races, Eddie Arcaro won jockey honors at the Hialeah meet with a 22 percentage.

Boosters To Arrange Basketball Banquet

Salem Boosters will meet at the Memorial building at 7:30 tonight to make plans for the annual Salem High basketball banquet, Joe Kelley and Art Brian announced today.

The meeting tonight will determine the date and program for the annual cage banquet, usually held at the Memorial building.

Last year the club feted the team in one of the largest banquets ever held for a cage team. Harold W. Emswiler, OHSAA commissioner, and Coach "Mo" Hole of Wooster college were the speakers.

TAYLOR IS HIGH IN PISTOL SHOOT

A. Taylor, with 185 of a possible 200, and Paul Gotschall, with 182, paced the field at the Salem Revolver and Pistol club's shoot last night at the city garage.

Each contestant fired 20 shots from a distance of 50 feet.

Results of last night's firing are: Match No. 1—Omar Rinehart, 84, 68-152; Dick Mossey, 52, 74-126; Walt Burger, 80, 77-157; Jim Trotter, 62, 68-130 and Lease, 84, 74-158.

Match No. 2—Patsy Rinehart, 52, 12-64; O. Rinehart, 77, 74-151; Lease, 87, 80-167; Mike Lutsch, Sr., 72, 68-140 and Mike Lutsch, Jr., 0, 12-12.

Match No. 3—Burger, 78, 62-140; J. Trotter, 67, 67-134; T. Mackin, 68, 49-117; Charles Mangus, 44, 13-57 and A. F. Taylor, 79, 56-135.

Match No. 4—J. Seroke, Jr., 54, 41-95; Paul Gotschall, 97, 85-182; C. Rinehart, 77, 88-165; C. J. Haney, 87, 83-170 and James Ivan, 28, 39-64.

Match No. 5—Burger, 73, 60-133; J. Seroke, 83, 81-164; M. Lutsch, Sr., 59, 57-116; and Trotter, 66, 67-133.

Match No. 6—Taylor, 93, 92-185; D. Huffman, 84, 91-178; J. Seroke, 62, 83-145; Mangus, 48, 56-104 and Cannon, 0, 39-39.

Match No. 7—Gotschall, 85, 92-177 and Huffman, 83, 87-170.

Manager Gets Chance To Blast Umpires

COCOA, Fla.—Bert Niehoff, manager of the Chattanooga Lookouts in spring training here, had the opportunity of a lifetime recently.

He was called on to speak at the closing session of an umpires' school. "Never told off so many umpires at one time in my life," grinned the Dutchman, dean of Southern Association skippers.

Fraley, Bockwinkler Meet In Other Feature In 2nd Grunt And Groan Show

Wrestling big timers—the same now performing about three nights a week throughout the country in major bouts—will be featured in the wrestling show at the Memorial building at 9 p. m. Saturday in Frank "Toar" Julian's and Joe Kelley's two-hour and forty-minute show.

Julian, ex-Salem High grider and now a participant in the professional wrestling circuit, will be featured in a 90-minute, best two-out-of-three falls bout against Von Schatt of Milwaukee, a 225-pound giant of some six feet five inches.

Von Schatt, recently discharged from the army following three years overseas duty in the Pacific area, is well known in the wrestling world as one of the current top men.

Julian, only professional wrestler from Salem who has really made the top-notch circles, has been featured in major bouts throughout this section, the east and Canada for several months.

Julian made the rounds in South America for several years before returning to the United States. He was acclaimed among the greatest ever to appear there.

Began Weight Lifting
The 225-pound muscle man began his first interests in wrestling here in weight-lifting classes at the Memorial building. He sponsored a three event bout here two months ago and is bringing the second here through cooperation with Kelley.

In the second billed affair Saturday, "Irish" Pat Fraley of California will tangle with Warren "Bock" Bockwinkler, a 242-pound performer from St. Louis, Mo.

Kelley and Julian have arranged for these No. 1 men to perform here by catching them on an open night between stops on the major circuit. Julian, for instance, is billed in Cleveland Thursday, performed in Toronto, Canada, Monday night and is slated for a match in Buffalo Monday of next week.

In a 10-minute curtain raiser, to precede the semi-final, Kelley announced that a pair of Salem High footballers, as yet unchosen, will grapple on the mat.

Julian expects to be in Salem this week to give instructions to the two gridders selected by Coach Ben Barrett for the performance.

Kelley said about 500 seats will be available for the show Saturday and from early indications those who want good seats should contact Kelley in advance to secure their places.

Early bids for the tickets have been coming in at the Memorial building and a capacity crowd is expected.

Judy Julian, brother of "Toar," is assisting in handling local arrangements.

SCHOOL BOARD

carried through all four years of High school by the student.

Urge School Lunch Program

The board also listened to a proposal by Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins of the Perry township rural planning committee, that a "hot lunch" program be inaugurated in Salem city schools this fall.

Citing the current critical shortage of room space in all of the city's schools, the board declined to take any action on the matter but did agree to submit the schools to a survey by a district health inspector to ascertain whether such a program could be carried out here despite cramped conditions.

Board members will make a tour of the city's grade schools in the near future for the purpose of examining the locks on fire escape and main coors.

Should the survey reveal that the present locks are out-moded and a threat to the safety of the pupils, steps will be taken to correct the situation.

The board recommended that a one-inch airtight insulation project be carried out at McKinley school where difficulty in heating one of the rooms in the southeast corner of the school has been experienced since the installation of a new heating plant.

With District Men In the Service

T. 4 Paul H. Crumbacher of R. D. 2, Salem, a member of the 25th medical battalion of the 25th Infantry (Tropic Lightning) division, is now in the lower portion of Honshu island where his unit was moved recently from the Nagoya area.

Sgt. Crumbacher, a veteran of 18 months' service, nine of them in the Pacific, was assigned to the 25th division shortly after going overseas in June, 1945.

S. Sgt. Charles McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McKenzie, 1083 E. State st., has been discharged from the army at Camp Atterbury, Ind., after three years' service. He spent one year in the European theater.

in this year's congressional elections. He did not go further than that.

Reece's forces, headed by Walter Hallahan, West Virginia committeeman, defeated former Senator John A. Danaher of Connecticut, generally regarded as the choice of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Danaher and John W. Hanes, a North Carolina Democrat-turned-Republican, at one point on the second ballot polled between them a total of 53 votes, enough for election had it been amassed by one individual.

Will Leave Congress Seat

Hanes candidacy was advanced by Sinclair Weeks of Massachusetts, former national committee treasurer and an ardent supporter of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Danaher mustered 31 as his top strength, but Reece had 46 on the first ballot, held that on the second and climbed to 58 on the third. This was five more than the necessary majority. The committee promptly made it unanimous.

Members returned Hallahan, who had been shunted aside at Dewey's request in 1944, to the executive committee. And as chairman of that group they elected Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, a half-way candidate for the chairmanship who nominated Reece.

The Tennessean, credited by friends as an adroit politician, expects to serve as a full-time chairman without pay. He said he will resign his congress seat to take over immediately. That will leave this lineup in the house: 239 Democrats, 190 Republicans, two minor party members and four vacancies.

Man Confesses Looting 105 Columbus Mail Boxes

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Capture of a 31-year-old local man believed to have robbed 105 Columbus mail boxes since Jan. 15 was announced today by U. S. Postal Inspector V. F. X. Sands.

Sands said the man had confessed robbing as many as 30 boxes in one night. The night of March 25, he said, the man broke into the mail box directly across the street from the Central police station.

Asserting he "stole mail by the bushel and basket loads," the postal inspector said the specific total in stolen cash could not be determined but that he thought it would aggregate several thousand dollars.

carried through all four years of high school by the student.

Urge School Lunch Program

The board also listened to a proposal by Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins of the Perry township rural planning committee, that a "hot lunch" program be inaugurated in Salem city schools this fall.

Citing the current critical shortage of room space in all of the city's schools, the board declined to take any action on the matter but did agree to submit the schools to a survey by a district health inspector to ascertain whether such a program could be carried out here despite cramped conditions.

Board members will make a tour of the city's grade schools in the near future for the purpose of examining the locks on fire escape and main doors.

Should the survey reveal that the present locks are out-moded and a threat to the safety of the pupils, steps will be taken to correct the situation.

The board recommended that a one-inch airtight insulation project be carried out at McKinley school where difficulty in heating one of the rooms in the southeast corner of the school has been experienced since the installation of a new heating plant.

Sgt. Crumbacher, a veteran of 16 months' service, nine of them in the Pacific, was assigned to the 25th division shortly after going overseas in June, 1945.

S/Sgt. Charles McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McKenzie, 1083 E. State st., has been discharged from the army at Camp Aitersbury, Ind., after three years' service. He spent one year in the European theater.

In this year's congressional elections. He did not go further than that.

Reece's forces, headed by Walter Hallanan, West Virginia committee man, defeated former Senator John A. Danaher of Connecticut, generally regarded as the choice of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Danaher and John W. Hanes, a North Carolina Democrat-turned-Republican, at one point on the second ballot polled between them a total of 53 votes, enough for election had it been amassed by one individual.

Will Leave Congress Seat

Hanes' candidacy was advanced by Sinclair Weeks of Massachusetts, former national committee treasurer and an ardent supporter of the late Wendell L. Willkie.

Danaher mustered 31 as his top strength, but Reece had 46 on the first ballot, held that on the second and climbed to 58 on the third. This was five more than the necessary majority. The committee promptly made it unanimous.

Members returned Hallanan, who had been shunted aside at Dewey's request in 1944, to the executive committee. And as chairman of that group they elected Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, a half-way candidate for the chairmanship who nominated Reece.

The Tennesseean, credited by friends as an adroit politician, expects to serve as a full-time chairman without pay. He said he will resign his congress seat to take over immediately. That will leave this lineup in the house: 239 Democrats, 190 Republicans, two minor party members and four vacancies.

Man Confesses Looting 105 Columbus Mail Boxes

COLUMBUS, April 2.—Capture of a 31-year-old local man believed to have robbed 105 Columbus mail boxes since Jan. 15 was announced today by U. S. Postal Inspector V. F. X. Sands.

Sands said the man had confessed robbing as many as 30 boxes in one night. The night of March 25, he said, the man broke into the mail box directly across the street from the Central police station.

Asserting he "stole mail by the bushel and basket loads," the postal inspector said the specific total in stolen cash could not be determined but that he thought it would aggregate several thousand dollars.
